REMEMBERING Ashes

Ashes was good at playing How to train your pet Cat. He was a loving part of our family, He came to us as a kitten , he lost his mother and was walking down the street hungry and saw us outside sitting and ran over to us and from that point on he adopted us. We didn't choose him he chose us. Ashes was Ashton's side kick as you can see in the picture. He cannot be replaced he was one of a kind. We will miss him.
