REMEMBERING Aussie

Aussie was a wonderful, weird ginger tabby born on July 30, 2001 who came into my life in December of that year. He was a loving, fun spirited guy who loved to play, enjoyed catnip and his toy mice. He is deeply missed not only by me, but by all of those he touched and especially by his kitty siblings Casanova and Spyder. We will all see you again at the Rainbow Bridge dear friend. Until then, find Dijon and give him our love. We miss you deeply and celebrate your spirit always!
