REMEMBERING BamBam

After 16 years, it's hard to wake up and not have you by my side. I miss you terribly but I will always hold your love close in my heart and your memories will live with me forever. You were always my perfect little "Country Gentleman" even as a youngster....never, never crossing a doorway or gate until after you let me go through first. This time, it is you that I must let go first! Rest in Peace my little BamBam, Until we meet again.
