REMEMBERING Bun Bun

For nearly 13 years, Bun Bun was a treasured part of our family. He and our two surviving dogs, had some good times together, playing chase at times with the younger one. He had a 2 story "mansion" and was my office mate for the past 10 years. Going to miss him ringing his bell each morning, wanting a treat. But mostly knowing he was always watching me as I worked at my desk. Rest in Peace little buddy.
