

Caliber Briscoe

December 15, 2010 - May 24, 2024

Caliber was born December 2010 and was with us until May 24, 2024. His nicknames were Ber-Ber and Bird. He was a very hyper and happy dog. He always ran to the door when being let out. He would run inside and go crazy. He would jump on the couches, run into the table, run into the walls and run into us. He would always just be so happy. He'd sit there at the dinner table begging for food and I would sneak him a piece or two. He would always sleep on the couch. And when we would fall asleep on the couch he'd sleep with us. He hated water but he loved to have his paws in the pool water. He'd come back in the house with wet feet and a wet face. That was the only time he liked water. Other than that he didn't like baths or swimming. You could always hear him barking when you came home. You'd see him looking out the window wagging his tale with the biggest smile on his face. And when you walked through the door he would go up to you and jump on you. He was the biggest bundle of joy and light that was brought into our family. We will forever love and miss you Caliber.
