

Charlotte Weeks-Brown

January 7, 2026

Charlotte Weeks-Brown passed away peacefully last night after 14 wonderful years of ruling our hearts and our household.

Santa Clause brought this sweet Cockapoo from Iowa and delivered her to Trew in Texas. That night she jumped over the baby gate and I said she must be part deer. From that day on we tried to convince Trew she was a Cockadoe since she was part deer.

Charlotte favorite thing was to go on car rides with her head out the window listening to music. She has a closet full of clothes that she loved wearing because that meant she was going somewhere.

Though small in size, Charlotte made it very clear that she was in charge. She took great pride in bullying her big cousin Ada and her little cousin Dolly, reminding them that feisty beats big every time.

We will miss her waiting by the window waiting for us to get home or the way her head would pop up when she heard Trew's car coming down the street.

We know Grandpa and Ada would be there to meet her and we are sure they've already gave her belly rubs and treats.

Love you Char-Char!
