Chiquilín

Adopted March 30, 2013

Chiquilín came into our lives through a simple Craigslist adoption, but little did we know he would fill our home with over a decade of love, personality, and unforgettable moments. He was the loudest voice in the house, never shy about announcing himself—especially when it was dinnertime.

He grew up surrounded by his furry family: his kitty siblings Crystal and Milo, and his doggie companions Penny, Zelda, Peggy, Princess, and Pitufo. Together, they made a full and happy home.

Chiquilín will be deeply missed, and the quiet he leaves behind is felt every day. We hope he's enjoying the biggest food bowl in the sky.

We love you always, sweet boy. ❤️
