

Choco Cortez

January 4, 2024 - November 30, 2024

Choco loved to go outside in the backyard and play with his toys especially playing fetch. He was full of life and he was super affectionate. He loved going out on trails cause he was super adventurous pup! Digging up his little treats in the backyard and saving it for later. He loved cuddling to sleep every night and would definitely sleep when you told him too.

He was gone too soon and he will be forever cherished. I love you choco, you will be in my heart forever and ever. When we meet again, I'll play fetch and play whatever games with you without a worry in the world.

Please forgive me for failing you. I never wanted this to happen, you were gone too soon. I miss you dearly and I cry just thinking about you. I love you my beloved son. - Roberto
