REMEMBERING Daisy

Daisy was the best furry kid ever. I've always said since the day we got her she was the best Walmart dog ever. She was smart, loved to run and for some reason loved to eat bread. I know you were loved by everyone except 2 cats a bunch of birds, one really mean frog and your fence living squirrel. Rest In Peace my Baby Girl. I love you. And there's no doubt in my mind you're mom loved you 2. Plus a bunch of other people. We will miss you baby.
