

Doug Vasquez

July 6, 2025

Doug entered our lives in 2011 when he was just a puppy and spent 13 and a half of the best years of our lives with us.

Doug was a special boy, he loved everyone he met. He loved playing in the snow, running across the street, bananas, going for rides, laying out in the sun and being near his favorite people and little sister Winnie. He lived a really good, long life and we're so grateful for every day we got to spend with him.

We'll miss you bud. Hope we made you as happy as you made us.
