REMEMBERING Emmitt Holmbeck

Emmitt had a happy, pure soul so full of life. Everyone loved her and she loved everyone she met. Her favorite thing in the world was sticks. Sticks were the best. She was the biggest baby. So big and fluffy and wild and clumsy and ditz. We loved her with every ounce of our beings and she loved us back even more. She was annoying as can be, but man was she an incredible and lovely dog. She looked so fierce and intimidating, but she was an absolute sweetheart and the biggest joy and albeit pain in the butt to be around. She touched so many people and she will be missed dearly. She IS missed dearly. We love you so so so much Emmitt. You will never be forgotten.
