GSXR James

July 04, 2011 – September 08, 2025

GSXR you will always be Mama's baby and Daddy's girl and the best Big Sister and protector this world has ever known.

You were so very special to your entire family and to all who were lucky enough to know you.

Though we can't give you snacks the way we used to when you perked up for a bite, or give you scratches and belly rubs, or take you on car rides, or do all the things we know you loved so much, we know that one day we will see you again and we will make up for lost time.

You were, and always will be, so much more than a "pet" to us. We grew up together. You kept us company, watched over us and you were our best friend.

Our home seems empty now because we greatly miss your presence, but our hearts will always be full because we carry your memory with each one of us every single day. We know how blessed we were to have you in our lives, and you will never be forgotten. Thank you for rescuing us!

You will always be our Amazing, Sweet, Loving, Protective Girl. You are the BEST Puppy Dog ever! Go chase those bunnies!!!

Skit em' GSXy Girl.

We Love you Forever Mamas–

Mommy, Daddy, your little Sisters and all your Family

“ Nana loves and misses you very much beautiful girl. They don't make many like you. Thank you for always being there to look out for your family. I know you are watching over your Mom, Dad and Sisters from Heaven. Don't forget to send them signs because they will be watching! We love you so much and that will never change!
