

Kilo McGee

October 23, 2017 - March 31, 2025

Our baby boy Kilo was the biggest snuggler, lap dog, stuffy destroyer, cheese lover around. He loved to sun tan in the summer and lounge in the shade during the winter. Kilo loved to follow his mama around the house and sleep by her side everynight. He loved to tug o war with his papa and jump up to lick his ears. Kilo always made sure if you had lotion on he would give you a bath and clean it right off. Kilo loved his job protecting the house and was the sweetest little man to everyone he met. Although Kilo hated baths he loved the water, when we went camping near the water all he wanted to do was be in it chewing on logs or diving for rocks. He leaves behind his sister Coco who loved him the moment she met him. They always had fun wrestling, exploring, and zooming around the yard. He knew mom and dad would always give in and he'd always rest his big noggin on the dining table and use his beautiful puppy dog eyes to get all the human food he could want. We love you Kilo and miss you very very much. You were the light that always brightened up our day.

“ Kilo, although we did not get to spend a lot of time together before you moved away I will always miss and remember you. Some pictures from when we got to babysit you for a few days- you were so helpful with (stealing ) the laundry and smiling for some ground beef 🙄. I hope you are up in heaven with Tyson & Nixon trying to find the best rocks and sticks to play with!
