REMEMBERING Milo

I never needed the sun because you could always brighten my day. My heart is so heavy. Milo was a phenomenal dog who loved everyone. There is not a dog in the world who loved to play as much as he did. He was my best friend. I am so grateful that I was privileged enough to call you mine. He will be missed more than words could ever describe. I would give anything in the world to throw the ball for him one more time. I love you bigger than the sun.
