

Mishka Hemstock

March 11, 2015 - March 20, 2026

Mishka was born on March 11th, 2015, in a puppy mill in Celeste. She came into the world under difficult circumstances and was given away for free with the expectation that she would not survive. But Mishka had other plans. After several weeks of struggle, she fought her way through and went on to live a long, happy, and deeply meaningful life.

From the very beginning, Mishka showed a gentle and remarkable spirit. She had a natural gift with other animals, patiently helping to socialize rescue dogs and offering them comfort and companionship when they needed it most. Her calm, steady presence made her a safe place for animals who had never known one.

She was equally loving with people—especially children—meeting everyone with kindness, patience, and a quiet understanding that made them feel at ease. Mishka didn't just exist in the lives around her; she enriched them.

She was also incredibly intelligent and eager to please, mastering countless tricks and commands over the years. Whether it was something impressive or just something that made people laugh, she seemed to take joy in learning and connecting with those she loved.

Mishka touched many lives throughout hers, bringing comfort, companionship, and joy to all who knew her. She was truly the best of the best—a fighter, a friend, and a once-in-a-lifetime soul.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Mishka is reunited in death with Penny Shatto, whom she loved so dearly.
