

Niko Koenig

March 28, 2026

Niko came to us in 2015. Our son adopted him, and subsequently, Niko adopted us. We've never had a pet with so much personality and bonding. Something we didn't fully realize until he was gone. Despite sleeping most of the day like a cat, he was always there to greet us and spend time with us. We had 10 great years before his diagnosis of multiple myeloma in 2025. It reduced him quickly over several months up to the point he was in pain, miserable, and stop eating. We did an in-home euthanasia since he hated vets, and it was peaceful thankfully.

Niko loved boxes, crinkly paper and playing under it, chilling on the patio, but most of all, he loved climbing. Put a ladder in front of him and up he went. He always wanted a high vantage point! He'd climb on my shoulder and hang out while I worked from home.

As empty nesters, we miss him dearly and the house isn't the same without him. Rest in peace buddy. See you on the other side.
