

Peanut Patty Castillo

February 5, 2025

Our beloved Peanut Patty crossed the Rainbow Bridge on 2-5-25.

Our daughter talked us into adopting Peanut when she was a tiny puppy that fit in the palm of your hand back in 2010, she grew to 40 unexpected pounds. She was a very devoted "Daddies Girl." Of course when daddy was at work, you were all about mommy. We spent our days at work with me typing away and you resting comfortably in your bed.

Peanut was never a "puppy," she never played with toys or chased cats. Her "boyfriend" is a cat named Cosmo. Her best friend Pixie Nicole preceded her in death and we're sure met her as she crossed over. Peanuts favorite pastime was cuddling up with daddy in his recliner or hogging half of the bed at bed time. She also loved to sit outside in the sunshine.

Peanut loved treat time with mom every day before bed. She would go from her bed to her mommy several times trying to get me to go to bed so she could have her treats. She expected them to be waiting for her on the bed every day and was not patient about missing them if they were not on the bed in time.

She will be forever missed.
