

Pichy Soriano

July 4, 2019 - December 2, 2025

July 4, 2019 – December 2, 2025

Pichy was the queen of our home, the tiniest soul with the biggest heart, and the girliest, cutest chihuahua ever to exist. Born on July 4th, 2019, her life was always marked by celebration, fireworks, and joy. Fitting for a little girl who brought so much light into our world.

We were lucky enough to rescue her in October 2020, and from that moment on, she completely changed our lives. The whole family fell instantly in love with her, and so did her companion, Toby, who always followed her around and stayed by her side. She was small, but she ruled the house with love, sass, and sweetness.

I called her “Pi” for short, and she greeted every single person at the door like they were the most important part of her day. No matter how tired you were, one look at her wagging tail and excited little face made everything better. She loved to snuggle and would never leave your side; your lap was her favorite place in the world.

Whenever Pichy got excited, whether it was treat time, walk time, or just seeing someone she loved, she’d make the cutest little snorting noise, and we all knew that meant she was happy. She lived joyfully and loved deeply.

Her favorite toy was her squeaky Chips Ahoy cookie, and she made sure the entire house could hear it. She was the loudest when she played, her squeaks echoing from room to room as she proudly carried her cookie around like a treasure.

Pichy was also our little fashion icon. She loved dressing up and never missed a chance to wear a cute outfit. Every holiday, every birthday, every season, she always had the perfect look. Our biggest fashionista with the softest heart. She loved going on walks, especially outside the neighborhood, but she absolutely refused to step in dirt. She only walked on sidewalks, always wanted to stay clean, always classy, always Pichy. The fanciest puppy we ever knew.

And since she was born on the Fourth of July, the fireworks always felt like they were just for her. Her birthday was never ordinary; it was a celebration of a girl who made our lives brighter just by being in them.

Though she left us too soon at only six years old, the love she gave will last forever. It was truly a privilege to be loved by her. Now she is at peace in heaven, watching over us, running freely, and squeaking her cookie somewhere beyond our sight.

She will always be part of our family. She will always be our queen.

Forever loved. Forever missed. Forever Pichy.
