REMEMBERING Rona

Rona, you were the sweetest, most gentle and patient dog I could have ever asked for. You brought light into my life for almost seven years, and I am sorry after all this time you were taken too early and so unfairly because of a decision I made that I will always regret. You are deeply missed. I am so glad I decided to adopt the six year old pit mix no one else seemed to want. You are forever in my heart. Run free and happy my sweet old girl, I love you.
