In Loving Memory of Our Beloved Dog Roscoe Pico Train

At just two years old, he left us far too soon, but in his short time here, he filled our world with joy. To him, the whole world was a toy—every leaf, every stick, every moment an invitation to play. His playful spirit was endless, his tail always in motion, and his heart always open.

He was deeply loved by the children who adored him, and he returned that love with boundless affection, loyalty, and gentle warmth. His days were full of laughter, energy, and simple, beautiful happiness.

Though he was with us for only a brief time, he made our lives brighter. We will forever miss his playful paws, his cheerful presence, and the way he made every day feel lighter.

Run free, sweet boy. You will always be in our hearts.
