REMEMBERING Sofie

Sofie!!!! I miss you & love you so much. You were always a wonderful protector to our family, even though you were only 5 pounds! You were a joy to me. I miss you so much. I can't believe you are gone. I'm just waiting to jere you jingle down the hallway. You were my best friend and always there to snuggle & love on me. I'm going to miss our walks and our shows we watched together! I miss you more than anything words can express, you are forever in my heart! XOXO!
