REMEMBERING Sophie

Sophie Garcia - born on July 20, 2011 - the BEST friend, furbaby & dog you could've ever wished for. She is very loved and missed by her momma and daddy. Her nickname was "Fatty" as her favorite thing in the world was FOOD! She was immediately loved by anyone who met her. She loved to wiggle around on her back lol that was her way of asking for belly rubs. She would "sit pretty" (up on her butt) for treats, which always worked lol She had the sweetest face ever. Her fur was like puppy fur she never lost. Her favorite spot in the whole house was laying in bed in the middle of her momma and daddy. She loved to be covered in blankets like a big burrito. I can still hear her little snore. Her sassy attitude and slick back talking will always be heard lol although she was a Chiweenie, Sophie swore she was a big dog! Was never scared of anything or anyone. She is survived by her 8 puppies. She was the best momma when she had her 1 litter. So strong for such a small girl. She passed away peaceful at home with her momma by her side. Our world is forever changed since she was our first baby. Hard to say "See you later" but I cant wait for the day we can reunite at the Rainbow Bridge. We love you baby girl, you're always gonna be Momma's baby! Have fun up there and show them who's boss!
