REMEMBERING Sterling ?

We got Sterling 7 years ago from Dallas Animal Services. We were second on the list for her and she wouldn't be available for adoption until the next day. Javier and I got up extra early and showed up before open, hoping we would be her forever family. When they called the other guy's name, we were so nervous, but he never showed! We were so happy to have her come home with us!!! ??There was not one person she met, that didn't fall in love with her. She was always so happy and was the sweetest girl. She loved hanging out with her mommy and daddy and running after balls, but not returning them. ?? She will be missed by her siblings:Liberty, Fiona, Ash, Juliet and Olivia ?? We will miss her everyday and we cherish the memories we have ?????? "Dogs die. But dogs live, too. Right up until they die, they live. They live brave, beautiful lives. They protect their families. And love us. And make our lives a little brighter. And they don't waste time being afraid of tomorrow." Dan Gemeinhart
