

Vanessa Mendoza

In Loving Memory of Vanessa
2009 - 2026

Vanessa came into our lives in 2009. She was always independent, occasionally gracing us with her affection, and she enjoyed being included in our adventures. She was a good dog who never caused trouble, never barked at others, and never destroyed anything.

One of my favorite memories is our Easter egg hunts—the only time she seemed to enjoy destroying something! I also appreciate her patience during all the times I dressed her up in costumes just to bring myself a little joy.

She spent her days soaking up the sun and caring for her daughter. She gave birth to Princess, who is her complete opposite, which always amused us. We are blessed to have Princess as a living reminder of her mother's presence.

We will miss her smile the most. We are grateful that she was able to celebrate her daughter's birthday before passing away. Vanessa was 17 years old and lived a long, peaceful life. We are so thankful to have had her in our lives.

We will always love you, Vanessa. We hope you enjoyed spending your life with us as much as we enjoyed spending ours with you.
