

Zeus Heitzmann-Dierkes

February 1, 2015 - August 2, 2025

Born Feb 2015

Passed Aug 2, 2025

He loved nothing more than laying in the grass in the summer sun, going for a ride, eating RITZ, kisses in the morning, and getting sister and brother. When he met a new dog he wanted to play with, he would spin around and push them with his butt - it was so silly but it almost always worked. If you asked him if he wanted to go on a walk he would confirm that he did by yelling and asking please VERY nicely (loudly). He always sat very proper and good when getting brushed (nearly every day) and would always be so polite and delicate when asking for snacks - in fact, he knew "don't even look at it" and he would look away and wait like the best boy he was. He was always very in tune when his parents weren't feeling their best and would offer up his snuggles and kisses without hesitation.

He is already and will forever be sorely missed.

The mother of his 13 puppies, Bailey, and his siblings Ares, Daisy, and Boo no doubt met him on the rainbow bridge to walk him across.

I'm so sorry for your loss, try and take some comfort he is with Boo.

(Context) I am a BO fan and coming to my first ever show in London at the grand old age of 29)

I'm also on holiday right now in Turkey, there is a dog shelter here and whilst we have adopted two pups from here over the years (Shelby & Oreo) we go back to donate food every year we visit. This year we donated couple big bags of dog food in Zeus & Boo honour. I will try upload pics of the pups on the BO fan group. But the short story long I'm trying to make is a lot of pups got a couple meals in honour of your pups this week. Your love for animals and their legacy. (I hope this reads well and helps your hearts at this difficult time.) - Jess
